2020 World Series Highlights

ARLINGTON, Texas -- In this oddest of years, this most peculiar of baseball seasons, there was perhaps no more telling snapshot of the United States, circa 2020, than a COVID-19-positive man sitting on the ground, maskless, next to a cancer survivor, maskless as well, with indelible grins spread across their faces. Sports is and always will be a metaphor for society.

LB Crime Falls

The deadly stabbing of 18-year-old Barnard College student Tessa Majors as she walked in a park near the school's campus in New York City shocked many in the city, while Majors' parents criticized the police union official who linked her murder to an attempt to buy marijuana.

U.S. Forces Leave Iraq

President Joe Biden says US forces will end their combat mission in Iraq by the end of this year, but will continue to train and advise the Iraqi military. The announcement came after Mr Biden held talks with Iraqi Prime Minister Mustafa al-Kadhimi at the White House. There are currently 2,500 US troops in Iraq helping local forces counter what remains of the Islamic State group.
